DOMAINE TASCHEREAU - PARC NATURE

750, Notre-Dame N, Sainte-Marie

The Central Park of Sainte-Marie!

In Beauce, we are truly unique! By visiting Sainte-Marie in winter, you will be amazed to find an open-air stopover in the middle of the city where you will be able to practice a variety of sports...

This eco-refuge is one of the twelve must-see destinations along the Route de la Beauce. Go there to explore its very well-maintained hiking, snowshoeing and cross-country ski trails, which are free to access. Observe several species of birds, enjoy the tranquility of the place and breathe the fresh air of the frosty season.

BLEUETIÈRE GOULET

2041, Route 112, Saint-Frédéric

Skating trails in the heart of nature!

As a magical site to enjoy the joys of winter, who would have thought of a blueberry field? In Saint-Frédéric, the Bleuetière Goulet showcases the splendour of its maple grove by creating enchanting skating trails.

As a family, you can put on your skates and go round and round again on the six kilometers of icy trails! After your adventure, warm up in the chalet nearby, or take a break in the rest areas and sit around the fires. Leave with a lighter heart after a comforting hot chocolate or a gin-inspired beverage from the charming restaurant-boutique corner.

CLUB SKI BEAUCE

536, chemin de l'Écore Sud, Vallée-Jonction

Fun for Everyone!

Love winter? Club Ski Beauce offers so much more than skiing! Bring the family or gather your friends for an exhilarating ride down the snow tubing hills or a few runs at the snow park. Enjoy downhill skiing at a resort where the slopes are less crowded, or take in the beauty of nature while cross-country skiing or snowshoeing along trails that wind through the Bleuetière Goulet's skating paths.

Little ones and friends who aren't naturally sporty can take lessons, too. Go on, convince them to join the fun!

PARC DES RAPIDES DU DIABLE

749, Route 173, Beauceville

A proximity to the river!

Meet at Parc des Rapides du Diable, another one of the twelve destinations that hosts our Miracles along the Route de la Beauce. It won't be the devil you encounter here, but rather a little corner of paradise, where scenic hiking trails lead you into the very heart of nature.

Put on your cross-country skis or snowshoes and take the trails of the bike path along the Chaudière River between Beauceville and Notre-Dame-des-Pins. Admire the views offered by the Beauceron landscape. Walk in the forest and learn more about the history of this park by doing a bit of reading on the interpretation panels.

PARC DES SEPT-CHUTES

1590, 49 rue N, Saint-Georges

Walking trails close to the city!

Seven waterfalls! Enormous two-hundred-year-old pines! A twenty-five-meter-high footbridge! Sporting warm hiking boots or snowshoes, the gently sloping trails promise a refreshing outdoor escape where crisp air and breathtaking scenery leave you with rosy cheeks and lasting memories. It is not surprising that the Parc des Sept-Chutes is one of the twelve destinations of the Beauceron Miracles! This is why Saint-Georges is called The Classic of classics!

Your whole family will love this place of fun and rejuvenation. Take up the challenge of doing all the stops along the falls or take it slower. But, don't miss it!

CENTRE DE SKI SAINT-GEORGES

2800, 107e Rue, Saint-Georges

Hit the Slopes!

Strap your skis to the roof rack and hit the road! Rent equipment on-site if needed. Make the most of winter in our charming region by carving up the slopes at Centre de ski Saint-Georges!

At the heart of Beauce's winter wonderland, this ski centre offers fun for all ages, with features for snowboard jumps, eight runs of varying difficulty, two glade skiing areas and two beginner slopes. Keep the fun going into the evening and experience the mountain from a whole new perspective on its illuminated runs. Have you got your season pass yet?
